

The CAHG AGM: Zoom meeting 26th October 2020 3pm to 5pm 60 in attendance
One page sketch summary of almost two hours meeting.

Treasurer's report 1st April 2019 - 31 March 2020 Budget £14,700 vs. actual spend of £10,050

Using Zoom for meetings will reduce some expenses and Nick Barratt the Treasurer expects some of the Budget this year will be reallocated to website development and Digital Engagement.

An early AGM slide mentions support from the Archives and Records Association

Keynote speaker materials were on Padlet as follows:
<https://padlet.com/aflinn1/mmw3qcla3y43tmnz>

Summary of meeting: it's about wellbeing.
E.g. Heritage, wellbeing and belonging.

Speaker: Liz Ellis: Inclusion and Wellbeing. Co-curation; diversify representation. South Asian heritage. Wellbeing outcomes e.g. taking part in community archaeology.

Speaker: Laura Drysdale about Restoration Trust; including Dr. Hill's Casebook.

"Changed minds" .. research on multiple asylum records with the help of Norfolk Record Office. Measure outcomes with University of East Anglia and Local Mental Health Trusts

5 minute break. 60 on line in the first half; still 50 on line by 5 pm

2nd hour: Awards and speeches
Best Community Engagement
Chippenham Museum (1980s / 90s club)

Gathering and Preserving Heritage
Kirklees Local TV (televising feelings of people in e.g. Kurdish or Iranian diaspora in Huddersfield West Yorks to help people to start conversations across racial divides to help make a better future)

Best Network of Community Archives and Heritage
Irish Community Archive Network {iCAN} now up to 28 archives, put together and supported by National Museum of Ireland {<https://www.museum.ie/en-ie/home>} with Local Authority partners. They have two community facing representatives. iCAN thanked Jack Latimer and Ian Grant. Note <https://www.oughterardheritage.org/> was pilot / trail blazer.

Contribution to Wellbeing and also overall prize winner
Kent's Sporting Memories Preserving the oral histories and reminiscences of local sports people thanks to Kent Libraries and Kent County Council; seemed to be HLF funding for two years. Speaker Michael Romyne summarised: exclusion and stratification of society by class means that heritage and wellbeing strands become entwined.

Side notes { HLF = www.heritagefund.org.uk } {Jack Latimer and Ian Grant = Community Sites}
HERITAGE FOR INCLUSIVE GROWTH published by The RSA (Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce) See attached

End of Note E&OE

